

Tranquil Notes

January 2012

WELCOME NOTE

Our Grand Opening was a day of cultural exchange and lively celebration. Thank you to all who participated and we hope everyone had as much fun as we did!

Many thanks to the Silk Ensemble from China's Spirit Music Ensemble, who played a rousing set of guzheng pieces arranged by fellow Qin Sheng Ensemble member and CSME Director Winnie Wong. Highlights included new arrangements for old favorites from Hong Kong film and pop music.

The day continued with calligraphy and painting demonstrations by 92 year old master artist and TRS Fine Arts Consultant, Fu Wenyan. His calligraphy was definitely like “dragons flying and phoenix dancing!”

Tea flowed throughout the day, being prepared by TRS gongfu tea practitioners Scott Norton and Jason Sarley. Everyone appreciated not only the grace and skill of these tea brewers but the hot tea kept everyone nice and warm throughout the day.

This new year started off with a bang and will continue to bring exciting cultural events and exchanges.
