WELCOME NOTE

Year of the Horse

2014 brings a new year of activities and excitement for us at Tranquil Resonance Studio.

This is the year of the wood horse, a year for change and movement. Here at Tranquil Resonance Studio, we are in the process of working with new artists to create new programs and more Cultured Gatherings to introduce even more aspects of traditional Chinese Culture.

Members of TRS will be heading back to the Shanghai Conservatory of Music later this year to attend the Festival of Modern Compositions for Guqin, an ongoing exploration of the music and character of guqin.

We hope to see all our old friends and meet new ones at our upcoming events.

Looking forward to sharing music and culture with you in this year of the Horse!
